Frequently Asked Questions (FAQ):

The core purpose of a Tiller—in the context of personal funds management—is to combine monetary data from disparate points into a single, cohesive view. Think of it as a main hub for all your monetary facts. Unlike standard budgeting software, which often demand manual entry of transactions, Tiller leverages the power of Google Sheets and connected statements to systematically bring in and arrange your economic data. This systematization is a key advantage over manual methods, saving users significant effort and reducing the chance of errors.

Imagine trying to control your funds using only money statements and a abacus. The sheer amount of data, the probability of errors, and the difficulty of spotting tendencies would be difficult. Tiller streamlines this method, transforming a complex task into a manageable and even pleasant one. It's like having a individual financial assistant working tirelessly in the back end.
