His teachings are compiled in the Quran, the holy book of Islam, which is considered by Muslims to be the literal word of God, revealed to Muhammad over a period of 23 years.

While in Medina, Muhammad engaged in a series of military expeditions to protect his community and defend against attacks. These campaigns, often described as defensive in nature, solidified Islam's presence in Arabia and unified various tribes under a single banner. Later in life, Muhammad began to search for spiritual enlightenment, frequently retreating to a cave on Mount Hira for contemplation. His early life was marked by hardship, encountering the loss of both parents at a young age. He was raised by his uncle, Abu Talib, and learned the professions of a shepherd and a merchant.
