Star is a hub within the Disney+ streaming service for television and film content intended for a general audience. The hub is available in a subset of countries where Disney+ operates. Programs released exclusively on Star are branded as "Star Originals". Content from Disney-owned networks such as Hulu,

ABC and FX, along with other Disney-owned programming premiere exclusively on Star internationally. Star also produces original local content which is exclusively released on the platform.

On August 6, 2025, Disney announced plans to discontinue the Star brand as a Disney+ content hub beginning in late 2025, and to extend the Hulu branding internationally as a replacement. In May 2025, Canada replaced the "Star Originals" branding with "Hulu Originals on Disney+".
