An extended play (EP) is a musical recording that contains more tracks than a single but fewer than an album. Contemporary EPs generally contain up to eight tracks and have a playing time of 15 to 30 minutes. An EP is usually less cohesive than an album and more "non-committal".

An extended play (EP) originally referred to a specific type of 45 rpm phonograph record other than 78 rpm standard play (SP) and 33 rpm long play (LP), but as of 2025, also applies to mid-length CDs and downloads. EPs are considered "less expensive and less time-consuming" for an artist to produce than an album, and have long been popular with punk and indie bands. In K-pop and J-pop, they are usually referred to as mini-albums.

WWP, marketed as We Wanna Party, is the second extended play (EP) by South African singer Tyla, released on 25 July 2025, through FAX and Epic Records. Serving as a bridge to her forthcoming LP, the four-track EP includes the singles "Bliss", "Is It" and "Dynamite" and features a guest appearance by Nigerian singer Wizkid. WWP blends elements of amapiano, pop, and R&B and its lyrics explore themes of celebration and longing for love.

Tyla led the songwriting for the EP, joined by frequent collaborators Sammy Soso, Ari PenSmith, Believeve, Mocha Bands and Sir Nolan, who also handled production. Additional production came from Dylan Wiggins, Nova Wav, P.Priime, Troy Taylor and Jo Caleb.

The EP earned generally positive reviews, with critics lauding Tyla's vocal performance. The EP's poor commercial performance in the U.S. sparked debates about how the singer's identity as a Coloured person may have been misunderstood by American audiences, who have difficult histories with the similar term 'colored'. To promote the release, Tyla held exclusive listening events in London and Berlin and is set to launch the We Wanna Party Tour, starting 11 November 2025, in Tokyo.

Stray Kids (often abbreviated to SKZ; Korean: ????? ??; RR: Seuteurei Kijeu) is a South Korean boy band formed by JYP Entertainment. The band consists of eight members: Bang Chan, Lee Know, Changbin, Hyunjin, Han, Felix, Seungmin, and I.N; Woojin left the band in 2019. Stray Kids primarily self-produce its recordings; the main production team is named 3Racha and consists of Bang Chan, Changbin, and Han, and the other members frequently participate in songwriting.

The leader, Bang Chan, personally selected each member to be a part of the band before the filming of the eponymous 2017 reality television show, something that is unusual in K-Pop where that authority is usually held by the agency's executives and creative directors.

The band released their unofficial debut extended play (EP) Mixtape in January 2018 and officially debuted on March 25 with the EP I Am Not, which was followed by the EPs I Am Who and I Am You, completing the I Am EP series. The Clé trilogy, consisting of Clé 1: Miroh, Clé 2: Yellow Wood, and Clé: Levanter, was released in 2019.

The band's first studio album Go Live (2020) become its first platinum-certified album by Korea Music Content Association (KMCA). That year, Stray Kids made their Japanese debut with the compilation album SKZ2020, which was released through Epic Records Japan. Their debut Japanese single "Top" debuted atop the Oricon Singles Chart, the fourth foreign male artists to do so with the first single.

In 2021, Stray Kids' second studio album Noeasy became its first million-selling album. After signing with Republic Records for promotions in the United States in 2022, the band released their EPs Oddinary, Maxident (both 2022), Rock-Star (2023), and Ate (2024); their third studio album 5-Star (2023); and their first mixtape Hop (2024). These six releases peaked at number one on the US Billboard 200 and entered the UK Albums Chart, making them the first act to debut at the top of Billboard 200 with their first-sixth-charted albums. The KMCA certified 5-Star five-million in album sales, making Stray Kids the third group to achieve this in Korea. In 2023, the band appeared on Time's list of Next Generation Leaders. As of December 2024, Stray Kids has sold over 31 million albums, both Korean and Japanese releases.
